CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON, D. C.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

STATINTL

STATINTL

11 June 1976

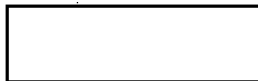

Dear [redacted]

As you reach the end of your active career of Government service, I want to join your friends and colleagues in wishing you continued success and satisfaction in your retirement.

You have been privileged during your career to face the challenge of responsibilities in positions of importance, including serving with distinction for a number of years as the Executive Assistant to the Deputy Director of Central Intelligence. Your perceptiveness and analytical ability, combined with your willingness to give unselfishly of your time and efforts, have resulted in a major contribution to your superiors and this Agency at large. The success with which you met these difficult challenges during a lengthy period of changes and concern should be a source of lasting pride to you.

May I extend to you, personally and officially, my sincere appreciation for the meaningful work you have done and my warmest hopes that you will find full enjoyment in the years ahead.

Sincerely,

George Bush
Director

Best of lucks and warmest personal regards - [redacted]
